

Oriflame Product Review

Being a woman I rely heavily on my make-up, particularly first thing in a morning and I found myself spending lots of money on make-up only to find it didn't suit me, or I didn't like the way it applied or it just didn't last that long after I had put it on. So in order to 'save money in the long run' I started to buy Chanel make-up products. The main thinking behind this was that although they are expensive they will last the whole day, I can try them before I buy at the make-up counter and I can then stick to what I know. So that was me...until I met Grace!

I have met Grace a number of times at various networking meetings but had limited knowledge of Oriflame or the products. We kept in touch on Linked In and when I saw that she was looking for people to test the products I jumped at the chance.

Grace came along to my office and asked me a number of questions regarding my skin care regime (a bit of moisturiser n a morning), my key make up item (mascara), what make up product I use the most (lip gloss/balm) and what kind of products were I hoping to try and why...(Foundation, Unless I but Chanel at £33 a time, I never seem to get the shade right).

After this we decided I would try the following products:

- Optimals Cleansing Milk
- Optimals Refreshing Toner
- Pure Nature Soothing Face Cream
- Everlasting Foundation
- Wonderlash Mascara
- Tendercare Almond Protecting Balm

The Verdict!

The skin care products are fantastic, the cleanser and toner make a real difference to your skin. My skin is smooth, spot free and soft to touch. I now cleanse, tone and moisturise twice daily and feel like my skin is glowing.

The Everlasting Foundation I love so much I have bought two more to stockpile and also prompted my Mum to switch from Estee Lauder to Oriflame Everlasting Foundation. What can I say other than, it really is fantastic. It matches my skin tone beautifully, it really does last all day and for the price I think everyone should be wearing it.

Now I don't know whether it is the skin care range or the foundations, I would like to think it's a combination of the two; but I have had so many comments from friends and acquaintances that have said 'You look great, your skin looks so lovely' and if I'm honest I often catch a glimpse of myself in the mirror after a hard day at work and think to myself 'ok so you don't look too bad'!

The Wonderlash mascara is a great mascara for the price...but it didn't achieve the dark lash effect that I am used to. But this just means I'll try another mascara next time...I am pretty fussy when it comes to my mascara, I'll update this when I try another!

Ahhh the TenderCare Protecting Balm...While I am writing this my mouth is watering, because this is just the loveliest thing EVER. It looks beautiful, it smells beautiful, its soft and silky and all the things you want a lip balm to be...and then it is also a protecting balm to be used on dry skin. Fantastic, so much so my Builder fiancé has pinched it and it is now in his van, it does make kissing him more palatable when he comes in from work all filthy. I need to order another one Grace, just for me!

Overall

This has been a wonderful experience...I am so glad I tried Oriflame products and I will definitely be a regular user of all of the above, and when I find that perfect mascara I will use that too.

Since I have tried the products I have had an Oriflame party at home, I have introduced a number of my friends and family to using the products and they all think they are great.

I even used the suntan lotion for my last holiday and nobody burned!

Thank you Grace for giving me the opportunity to try these wonderful products, only trouble is, you won't be able to get rid of me now 😊
